Welcome back Karen!

As we celebrate our 182nd Anniversary as a congregation, we welcome back in our midst our former student and congregational member the now Rev. Dr. Karen Dimock. Karen and her family were active participants in the life and work of St. Andrew’s over the past decade. She is now the minister of Morningside-High Park Presbyterian Church in Toronto. We are excited to have her in our midst today and look forward to catching up on the exploits of herself, her husband Hugh and their children Ross, Jamie, and Maggie. Welcome home.

New Members last Sunday

Due to printing deadlines, Craig and Colleen Clack’s names did not appear in the bulletin as joining our church by transfer last week. We wanted to welcome them officially in print today. Welcome to St. Andrew’s, Craig and Colleen and their daughters, Leah and Grace.

Rev John and Matt Foxall are on study leave April 25 to May 2.

Sponsors needed: The Youth Ministry of St. Andrew’s works in partnership with the Guelph Youth Ministry Network program known as "The Vault" which gathers together not only our youth but the youth from all over the Guelph community to gather together once a month to worship and praise Jesus. In June the Network always puts on a huge concert in Riverside Park and we need everyone’s help to make this happen. We are currently looking for some sponsors to help make this concert a reality. If you know any businesses that would donate some money or if you’d like to make a contribution to help out the network please speak with Matt ASAP.

Resignation of Jenny Emerson as Church School Team Leader

It is with regret that we announce that Jenny Emerson has resigned as our Church School Team Leader effective June 1st. Jenny has held this position for the last four years in both volunteer and paid capacities. The Session accepted Jenny's resignation with regret and deep thanks for her valuable contribution to our Church School program and our children. Session has referred the matter of seeking a new team leader to the Human Resources Committee. A formal recognition of Jenny's work and ministry will be held in a future worship service.
