We welcome The Rev. Dr. Charles Fensham to our 178th Anniversary Service this morning as our pulpit guest. Charles is Assistant Professor of Systematic Theology at Knox College, Toronto. His special interests include: empowering the mission of the church through theology, addressing contemporary culture as vulnerable servants, and using the history and tradition of the church and our reformed heritage to inform our life as the people of God. We look forward to his message this morning.
Welcome Charles!
