Good News on the Financial Front

Givings for Presbyterians Sharing for 2008 were greater than 2007. Our head office sends their thanks because contributions Canada wide on October 2008 were way behind and warning bells needed sounding.

In late December, I walked into Zehr's with our collection of shopping tapes for the year. Once again, we were able to save of $220,000.00 of grocery tapes and that translates into $490.00. That money is used to help with purchases of diapers as our contribution to the C.O.R.E. program.

Thank you to all for your fantastic support of all our programs and keep watching this bulletin for more good news as we close the 2008 books.

On a personal level, I wish to thank everyone for their prayers, gifts and visits as I recover from my heart attack. A special thanks to John Holman who has been looking after your finances in my stead and getting the financial statements ready for our Annual Meeting which will be February 15th, 2009.

Treasurer
